Employees who telecommute from home are subject to the same internal District policies regarding the use of District provided equipment and services as that of employees at the District located worksite. The District will not purchase or reimburse employees for the cost of an internet service provider or internet use. District information stored on an employee's personal computer may be subject to public disclosure requirements.

The District will not reimburse the employee for long distance phone calls incurred due to a Telecommuting Agreement.

Upon separation of employment, the employee shall return all District owned equipment and supplies within twenty-four hours.

Confidentiality

It is the employee's sole responsibility to maintain the confidentiality and proper storage of District information, to prevent unauthorized access to any District system or information, and dispose of work-related documents in a manner that will not jeopardize the interests of the District.

Violation of the Telecommuting Policy will result in revocation of telecommuting privileges and disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

COMPLAINT PROCESS

Employees should attempt to resolve concerns about workplace conditions and complaints with the employee's immediate supervisor. If complaints are not resolved with the immediate supervisor, employees may request a joint meeting with the employee, employee's supervisor and the Director of Human Resource in order to resolve the issue.
